

Goddess Seeds of Light

by Goddess Rosanna thru Natalie Glasson

'Divine Goddess vibrations and presence within and around me, I call upon your graceful energy to interweave into my reality allowing me to experience a reality of flowing grace, allowing the qualities of gentleness, compassion, tenderness, grace and beauty of the Goddess and the Creator to emanate from my being. I understand all these Goddess qualities to be powerful and empowering for me in this present moment. I allow myself to now open up and experience the graceful flowing vibrations of the Goddess in all areas of my reality. Thank you.'

Permit yourself to enter into a sacred space and cocoon of the Goddess light, let the divine feminine vibrations wash over you as if they are cleansing nutritious fragrant waves of light drifting into every aspect of your being. Let yourself embrace the divine Goddess vibrations for they are truly merging with the Earth and the dimension of the planet. The Goddess vibrations are integrating, active and potent; you can now connect with this vibration more than ever before, feeling as if you exist in a cocoon of Goddess light. The vibrations of the Goddess present themselves so gracefully because you are conscious of your divine Goddess presence within your being. Your body is resonating with grace, beauty, gentleness, compassion and tenderness; these vibrations currently have a powerful impact upon your being. Not only are you attracting these qualities but you are activating them from within your being. This means that your body will react differently now to what could be described as more forceful masculine vibrations, these may feel heavy or painful to your entire being. As the Goddess is awakening within your being so your Goddess qualities are awakening, you may find yourself seeking a gentle, calming and soothing environment where you can be at peace allowing yourself to blossom gracefully from within. As we enter into the Era of Love the presence of the Goddess is potent, it symbolises that spiritual growth and awakening can be achieved through graceful shifts rather than painful or difficult shifts.

The divine Goddess vibrations are here to assist you in connecting with the gentler flowing aspect of your being, the peaceful and compassionate aspects of your soul. The purpose of the Goddess is to bring a graceful awakening for all carrying you into love, truth and oneness.

You may call upon the presence and the vibrations of the divine Goddess if you are experiencing difficulty or hardship in your reality, mental body or emotional body. Simply say:

'Divine Goddess vibrations and presence within and around me, I call upon your graceful energy to interweave into my reality allowing me to experience a reality of flowing grace, allowing the qualities of gentleness, compassion, tenderness, grace and beauty of the Goddess and the Creator to emanate from my being. I understand all these Goddess qualities to be powerful and empowering for me in this present moment. I allow myself to now open up and experience the graceful flowing vibrations of the Goddess in all areas of my reality. Thank you.'

It is important to recognise the qualities of the divine Goddess as powerful and empowering, if you perceive certain qualities such as gentleness to be weak, allow yourself to contemplate the qualities of the Goddess discovering the empowerment for yourself in all qualities. It is only past perceptions that may have portrayed the Goddess qualities as weak.

In order to connect with the Goddess qualities and your own inner Goddess allow yourself to spend time contemplating and gazing upon a rose. Allow yourself to recognise the beauty of the rose born from nature, born from the Creator. Let yourself explore the qualities, scents and presence of the rose. You may wish to contemplate its strong stalk symbolising the Goddess inner strength, maybe even the thorns that symbolise projection.

Notice how the rose appears strong and yet its petals are so gentle and soft. The presence of the rose can share with you much wisdom concerning your own inner Goddess qualities and the divine universal Goddess qualities. You may call upon me, Goddess Rosanne, when achieving this practice to divinely inspire you.

I encourage you to consciously enter into the sacred cocoon of the Goddess light with each morning upon awakening. Breathe with conscious awareness into your entire being and into your heart. Imagine you are breathing the perfumed fragrant light of the Goddess into your being but also into your heart chakra. Take a few moments to focus upon breathing the blissful light into your heart chakra; this will awaken your heart chakra, preparing you to exist in every moment of your reality with an open and expansive heart chakra. It will also create a divine connection and flow of the divine Goddess vibration within and through your heart chakra, softening your heart, reducing the closing of your hearts in certain situations. As you exist and breathe in this cocoon of Goddess light for a few moments upon awakening in the morning you will notice shifts within your being as you invite the graceful flow of the Goddess to be a part of your reality.

You will notice that your own Goddess qualities and abilities awaken for your further experience and exploration.

Beings of light from Venus are currently supporting the anchoring of the divine Goddess more fully into the Earth and its awakening within your being. The energies of Venus are focused upon love and merge beautifully with the Goddess vibrations acting as an additional loving power and strength so that the Goddess light which is so potent with Creator vibrations and consciousness will no longer be diminished or limited upon the Earth. The beings from Venus believe that through humanity's greater acceptance of the qualities of the Goddess a deeper resonance with love will be acknowledged within and projected outward into the physical reality and dimensions.

These beings from Venus wish many to look into the divine qualities and vibrations of the Goddess in order to recognize the presence of love in all aspects of the Goddess, then recognizing the same within their own beings and all that is the Creator.

You may wish to meditate calling upon beings of Venus working closely and as one with the Goddess vibration to draw close around you, supporting your space of peace and exploration of love. As you breathe deeply let yourself repeat this phase:

'I allow the divine Goddess to lead me to a deeper recognition of love.'

This symbolizes that through your acceptance and merging with the Goddess vibrations and qualities, (even if it is only an intention and not yet a fully manifested experience) you can move into a space and experience of the greater wealth and abundance of love within your being. Not only will you be accepting the Goddess vibration but you will be accepting the love energies of Venus and your own Creator love within your being. This is a beautiful love awakening practice.

It is my wish to make you aware that as the Goddess vibration draws closer and merges with the Earth's dimensions that seeds of Goddess light are being carried upon waves of sacred Goddess light. If you imagine the seeds of a flower being carried in the wind to be planted and to grow wherever they land or are accepted. The Goddess seeds are the same; the divine source of the Goddess is creating and releasing light seeds filled with divine Goddess wisdom, consciousness, qualities and truth. These seeds carried upon the waves of Goddess light are available for you to receive. They are gifts of abundant Goddess consciousness and insights. All that you need to do is to be open to receiving. In your quiet time or your meditation, you can enter into the cocoon of the Goddess light, breathing the Goddess vibrations into every aspect of your being while then focusing on expanding your heart chakra with the Goddess light.

Then say:

'I invite the divine seeds of light, created by the sacred Goddess Source and supported by beings from Venus, to enter into my heart chakra, to seed, germinate and grow filling my heart with the love and consciousness of the Goddess. Let me collect and access the most appropriate or intended light seeds for me to aid and advance my understanding and experience of the divine Goddess of the universe and the Goddess within my being. I am open to the divine experience and integration. Thank you.'

What lies within you is a spark of pure divine light. You are like a shining star in the night sky. The center of your being is a beautiful candle flame. The light of your being has the power to light many candles and in turn their candle will also light many more... this is the infinite power of light, for even if it goes out it can be lit once more. There is an infinite ripple of pure light and it illuminates all that it touches. This light is YOU, it is your essence. Claim your true power NOW, don't hold back... Shine, Shine, Shine!!!
~ ~ Abigail Wainwright

Then sit in peace, imagining your heart chakra open and expansive, focus on receiving as you imagine or simply know that the most appropriate Goddess light seeds are entering into your heart chakra where they will abundantly add to the vibrations and luminosity of your soul and Goddess presence.

I hope you will accept the gifts shared through my communication to support your deeper connection and understanding of the transitions of the Goddess occurring within and around you.

With Goddess blessings,
Goddess Rosanna
